NOLO

Living Trust – John Smith

Step 2 of 7

One Trust or Two?

You have chosen to make a basic, probate-avoidance living trust.

The first question to think about is whether you want to make an individual trust or a shared trust with someone else.

If you're single, it's simple — you'll just make an individual trust. Couples will probably want to consider making a shared trust.

☒ I want to make an individual living trust.

☐ Tell me more about shared living trusts.

Helpful Information

Trusts Aren't Like Wills

When you make a will, you make your own document whether you're single, married or have a same-sex partner.

Trusts are different. Many (though not all) couples make one shared trust. You can learn about the pros and cons of this option next.
