Open Games keep the right-click, Window, Show all files and youll see the LHA file.. I strongly recommend to register WHDload and have a key to avoid the splash screen.. So the question; was that guide right, or can I just copy the Amiga Forever Kickstarts in the respective Bios directories And if the guide was right, is there a way to decrypt the Amiga Forever Kickstarts so I can use them on Retropie.

With this you will be able to use WHDLoad games and delete all your adf, this IS the best In this guide Ill use UAE4ARM but all files will work with UAE4all too.. Open DH0, keep the right-click, Window, Show all files and open the C directory Open Games keep the right-click, Window, Show all files and open the Installer433 directory.. For the A1200 I have only a 1 3 ROM Now, the thing is, I have bought Amiga Forever a while ago so I have all the Kickstarts possible, but I went to look for a few other roms because a guide said that the Amiga Forever roms may not work with anything but Amiga Forever due to them being encrypted..
